Reconstruct...

Write a sentence together. Print your writing out in big lettering including the full stop. Cut into individual words, including the full stop. Help the children to reproduce the sentence, by holding the cards in front of them. As you do more of these, collect them together and save for future use.

Expand...

You can build up and develop sentences by asking questions.

Child: "It's my birthday today."

Adult: "How old are you?"

Child: "I am five."

Adult: "It is your fifth birthday today." ... and so on...

Sentence Frames:

Ciraffes	like	biscuits.
Tigers	like	snow.
Penguins	like
Parrots

Make sure that children have plenty of regular practise and that they use capital letters and full stops.

Transforming sentences:

Oral, then written changing of the words in well-known sentences...

Jack and Jill went up the hill. ... can become...

Fred and Kath went down the path!

Or...

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall; Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.

Perfect punctuation

Write a short piece of text with full stops in the wrong place. Read it through together. Does it sound right? Alter it by reading through and listening to hear when the sentence is complete. Correct accordingly.

Punctuation spotter

Print off a piece of text from a book, magazine or the internet. Go through this, highlighting all of the capital letters and full stops. Make a chart to record, "When do we use capital letters?" Do the same with question marks, exclamation marks or verbs and adjectives.

Sentence frames – nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs

Use this to help develop your understanding of more complex sentences.

article	adjective	noun	verb	adverb
The	black	rat	looked	soggy.
An	old	duck	swam	slowly.
Some	smart	rings	shone	brightly.
A	toffee			delicious.

Finish the sentence:

Give your child some sentence stems and conjunctions – e.g. The dog ran over the road. . . when, because, next, etc.

Children compose appropriate endings. Discuss. Are the endings interchangeable?

Does the meaning change according to the conjunction being used?

Stretchy sentences: Can you stretch these sentences?

To make them longer you need to add more information.

e.g. The boy went to the park.

The happy, young boy went to play with his friends at the huge, exciting park.

or...
